

1

NEWS

SEVERE TROPICAL STORM PAENG

The Low Pressure Area (LPA) east of Eastern Visayas that became Tropical Depression (TD) "Paeng" on October 26, 2022. On October 27, 2022, as it moved across the Philippine Sea, it became a Tropical Storm (TS). Tropical Storm Nalgae (local name Paeng) made landfall on Friday, October 28, 2022 in Zamboang City. With 255 afflicted people, Barangay Ayala lagged behind; the remaining families came from the nearby villages of San Jose

Gusu, Tictabon, Tugbungan, and Pamucutan. Families that had been uprooted were temporarily housed in gyms, covered courts, schools, and churches... Along with the Government of Zamboanga, Mayor John Dalipe and Vice Mayor, Pinpin Pareja together with Senator, Risa Hontiveros, visited Barangay Ayala and offered help to the affected community, ("TS PAENG EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EARLY RECOVERY CARAVAN"). The aforementioned event took place at, Ayala National High School, at the MPCC on November 11, 2022. Government and non-government organizations provided free services, food, financial aid, and relief products to the affected residents. This activity's primary goal is to provide equitable, effective and efficient health care service through the execution of medical and dental missions in collaboration with local government entities, non-government organizations, civic associations, religious institutions and other government agencies, as proposed the authorized by management.

There are a lot of people who attended the said event, most especially the affected families of typhoon Paeng. The Principal of Ayala National High School welcomed the affected families with wide open arms. The Supreme Student of Government (SSG) was also present in the said event. It's indeed a very tragic to the people of Zamboanga. Luckily amidst of everything, we as Filipino's the spirit of thoughtfulness and our love for everyone will always be alive in each and every one of us. Indeed in every storm that we will encounter, as long as we will work hand in hand, we will always overcome any challenges that we will face along the way.

- CORDERO SHARICE JANE
PACULBA, KAIRYL AIFA V.

NEWS: CORDERO, SHARICE JANE
PACULBA, KAIRYL AIFA V.
FEATURE: SEGOVIA, DENNISE DANE
PACULBA, KAIRYL AIFA V.
PACULBA, KAIRYL AIFA V.
LAYOUT: ZOI KHYLE

2

FEATURE

56th foundation day:

ANHS @56; SUSTAINING A UNIFIED AND RESILIENT CULTURE OF EXCELLENCE AMIDST PANDEMIC

Years have passed since the pandemic happened Corona virus affected so many people and claimed many lives. Since its outbreak in late December 2019, COVID-19 has wreaked havoc across the world and like any critical sector, education has been hit hard. Students, schools, colleges and universities have been deeply impacted. Students were asked to be in a modular or online class, for them to stay at home, to prioritize their health and for them to be safe against the Covid-19 virus.. Because of this the students haven't experience the school activities for a long time. On September 5, 2022 marks as the 56th foundation day of Ayala National High School with the theme: "ANHS @56 Sustaining a unified and resilient culture of excellence amidst the pandemic." The event was facilitated by the Supreme Student Government (SSG). The SSG prepared a lot of competitions and also the clubs of Ayala National High School. Ms. Educator, Teachers Dance Challenge, and Festival of Quiz bee, tagisan ng talion, battle of the brain, speed Talents competitions received prizes at the end of the program. Prizes were also given to students who gave their all to poster making, these are the competitions given to the students of Ayala national high school. Of course there very enjoy and worth treasured for, event. For almost 2 years, are also competitions for teachers. Ms. And Mr. Educator, It was nice to experience this kind of activities in school, teachers dance challenge and lastly festival of talents. having bond with the teachers, schoolmates, and friends. Everyone in school participated in the said event.... At Life brings tears, fear, smile and memories The tears dry, the last day of the foundation day the program started the smiles fade, but the memories last forever.. It is very with a morning mass, at 7 in the morning, the Ayala Parish Priest, Rev. Fr. Allain J. Ruiz, headed a thanksgiving mass prior to the start of the program. The program commenced by singing the national anthem crisis will just pass if everyone is optimistic and if we are of the Philippines, Zamboanga Hermosa and the ANHS willing to help each other. We only live once, let's make more memories as much as we can, because memories last a lifetime, especially when it's with the people we love.

-SEGOVIA, DENNISE DANE, PACULBA KAIRYL